

Governor Mimiko delivers the 3rd Safe Motherhood lecture

The Governor of Ondo State, Dr. Olusegun Mimiko will on Tuesday 7th December, 2010 deliver the 3rd Safe Motherhood lecture at the National Centre for Women Development, Abuja.

The lecture titled “Mobilising Resources for Achieving MDG-5 in Nigeria States: The Ondo Example” organised by the Women’s Health and Research centre, in collaboration with the Population and Reproductive Health Initiative with support from MacArthur and Ford Foundation.

Dr. Olusegun Mimiko will also receive an Award of Excellence at the lecture in Delivery of Maternal Health Care.

According to the organizers, the award was in recognition of the excellent-free-of-charge medical services being rendered at the Mother and Child Hospital for the care of pregnant women and children less than five years of age.

Signed:

Ranti Akerele,
Hon. Comm. for Information Ondo State.
